

Equine WOUND MANAGEMENT

Prof. Derek Knottenbelt

Royal Counties

Veterinary Association

7.00pm Thursday 29th November 2012

Professor Derek Knottenbelt is renowned for providing expert equine advice in a way that everyone enjoys. In November Derek is coming to the Royal Counties to share his knowledge with us. Elanco Companion Animal Health will also be giving a short technical presentation on an innovative new wound management product.

Don't miss out on this great opportunity to hear this celebrated & entertaining speaker relate his practical experience on how to treat all kinds of injuries in horses. With a pre-talk buffet & plenty of time for questions at the end, this promises to be an excellent evening of equine CPD. All welcome - (see details below).

Venue: Hilton Newbury North RG20 8XY

Buffet from 7.00pm, Talk from 7.30pm

Generously sponsored by Elanco
